SHORE BOGGLES

Many many years ago, in the times of Lanty Slee, there were many mischievous goings-ons along the banks of the River Derwent.

Our own Lanty was one of many smugglers and thieves using the river to transport their ill-gotten gains to and from inland towns and villages.

Shore Boggles were mythical creatures; of which stories were told by mothers and fathers to ward their children away from the dangerous banks of the river.

Each Shore Boggle was different in many ways but all had red eyes and fur!

CAN YOU COLOUR IN YOUR SHORE BOGGLE AND THEN CREATE ONE FROM YOUR OWN IMAGINATION!
